

Musikk – Andreas Krambias

Andreas Krambias

Andreas Krambias, born in Nicosia, is a musician with a rich and diverse musical journey.

In 2016, he performed as a bouzouki soloist with the «Cyprus Symphony Orchestra» in the concert called «The First Step.»

Andreas released the album titled 'ISKIOS,' an independent production of 'Burek duo.'

He graduated with honors from the «Department of Music Science and Art» at the «University of Macedonia» in Greece. There, he specialized in Greek traditional music, with a focus on the bouzouki and secondary instrument the oud, under the guidance of esteemed teachers Lefteris Tsikouridis, Giorgos Karamfillis, and Thymios Atzakas

Since 2022, Andreas is studying at the «World Music department» at the «Academy of music and drama» in Sweden, where he specializes in playing the oud mentored by renowned oud player Ahmad Al Khatib.

Andreas is a member of various musical groups, including Burek duo, Alasia trio, Gothenburg alternative orchestra, POMANA etc.

Throughout his musical journey, he has performed in concerts and festivals in Cyprus and abroad, such as Macao, Netherlands, Germany, Sweden, Estonia, Lithuania and Slovenia.

Instrumenter

Oud

Sjangere

Tradisjonell musikk

Opprinnelsesland

Kypros

Basert hvor i Norge

Omgången 413 41280
göteborg

Kontakt Info:

andreaskrambias@hotmail.co m