

Musikk – Laura Loviskova

Laura Loviskova

Laura Lovišková is a Slovak flutist, based in Stavanger. She holds diplomas from The Academy of Music and Performing Arts in Bratislava (MA) and The University of Stavanger (MA ,PDM, Extension Study in Chamber Music and Piccolo). In 2015 Laura studied as an exchange student and collaborated with local musicians in Reykjavik (Iceland). She is one of founders and CEOs of Hvalur Festival – The Festival of Icelandic Music in Bratislava. She's been a member of several contemporary ensembles and alternative music bands (Veni Academy, Asynchronia Ensemble, Katarína Máliková & Ensemble). Currently she is a freelancer, a substitute flutist in the Stavanger Symphony Orchestra and a member of Opera Rogaland Sinfonietta. Laura is also a leader, composer and pianist of Ecetera band.

Ecetera Band is a music group from Bratislava, currently based in Stavanger. The band was founded by sisters Laura Lovišková (author of compositions, piano) and Izabela Lovišková (vocals, glockenspiel, electronics). Their original musical compositions represent „musical tales“, which by their expressive and in detail worked-out instrumental, rhythmical, melodic and harmonic contents, depict moments of life – those usual and everyday ones, or those special, personal ones. Music played by Ecetera Band contains various styles (neo-classical , chamber pop or progressive rock) and it is still looking for the most appropriate way how to

Instrumenter

Flutes, Piano

Sjangere

Klassisk, Elektronisk, Tradisjonell musikk, Rock, Jazz

Opprinnelsesland

Slovakia

Basert hvor i Norge

Stavanger

Kontakt Info:

laura.loviskova@gmail.com

express its ideas , in order to reach a visual or even cinematographic impression.